

The Seven Hot Springs of Kinosaki

①

②

③

④

⑤

⑥

⑦

Address of this page

Bar cord type Sotoyu-Ken. One ticket would allow you to go any Onsens during their open hours.
Ticket is valid from check-in to 10:00 am in the next morning.

After the Onsen Pass is expired or before you get it from Ryokan, you need to pay for the entrance fee to the bathhouses.

There is no free towel available at the bathhouses. Please take them from your room. Or if you forget, you can purchase them for 150 yen.

① Satono-yu

Conveniently located next to Kinosaki Station, Satono-yu features many different saunas, Jacuzzis and outdoor baths. The male and females sides change daily between Japanese and Roman style, so be sure to try more than once.

Open:
1:00 AM – 9:00 PM
Closed:
○ Every Monday
5 minutes walk

② Jizou-yu

A short walk up the road from Kinosaki Station is Jizou-yu, named after a Buddhist deity that watches over children. The waters of Jizou-yu are said to bring safety and prosperity for family. The building was designed to resemble a Japanese lantern. Jizou-yu features bathing facilities with high ceilings and a modern interior.

Open:
7:00 AM – 11:00 PM
Closed:
○ Ever Friday
1 minutes walk

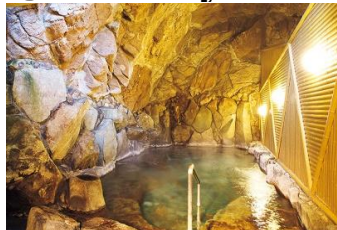

③ Yanagi-yu

Named for the willow trees which line the streets of central Kinosaki, Yanagi-yu is the smallest public hot spring in Kinosaki and has a very traditional and homely atmosphere. Its waters are said to bring good luck for birthing healthy children. Conveniently located in central Kinosaki, it is popular with both locals and tourists

Open:
3:00 AM – 11:00 PM
Closed:
○ Every Thursday
3 minutes walk

④ Ichino-yu

Open:
7:00 AM – 11:00 PM
 Closed:
 ○ Every Wednesday

5 minutes walk

⑥ Mandara-yu

○ Open:
3:00 PM – 11:00 PM
 Closed:
 ○ Every Wednesday
 13 minutes walk

Renovated in 1999, Ichino-yu contains many modern, indoor bathing facilities as well as outdoor hot springs in a cave-setting. The hot spring waters are said to bring success in school and good fortune for safety while traveling. Located in the center of town, this hot spring has come to symbolize Kinosaki.

Set back from the main road, Mandara-yu offers a very quiet and traditional hot spring experience. The waters of Mandara-yu are said to bring prosperity in business and agriculture. The outside architecture (carefully reconstructed in 2001) is one of the most impressive of the seven public hot springs

⑤ Goshono-yu

Open:
7:00 AM – 11:00 PM
 Closed:
 ○ Every first & third Thursday of the month
 10 minutes walk

The newest of the seven public hot springs in Kinosaki, Goshono-yu is also one of the largest. The waters are said to bring good luck for finding a marriage partner and preventing fires. The outdoor hot springs face a waterfall, making for a very beautiful and relaxed setting.

⑦ Kouno-yu

○ Open:
7:00 AM – 11:00 PM
 Closed:
 ○ Every Tuesday
 15 minutes walk

The first bathhouse in Kinosaki, Kouno-yu has very impressive outdoor facilities. According to legend, storks use to bathe in the marsh waters that once existed in the area for their healing properties. It is also said that the waters of Kouno-yu provide longevity and happiness in marriage

